

THE VALDEZ HURTADO FAMILY

ABOUT JOSE MANUEL

VAIL

Jose Manuel was born in Obregon city in the state of Sonora and has lived in Puerto Peñasco for the past 16 years. He has experience in carpentry, masonry and other construction skills and is currently working for the local waste management company.

Jose has two children which he has been raising on his own for the past 9 years. Jose (14) and Luz (12) both attend school. Jose and his ex-wife went through drug addiction issues and as a consequence, Jose spent a year in jail. He came out of jail with a new perspective, having given his life to Christ and started working to care for and support his children. Unfortunately, his ex-wife has not been willing to go into rehab and is currently not a regular part of their family. Jose is living on his land lot with his children, their grandmother and a couple of aunts. They all work to support each other, but the home they are in is built with salvaged materials and is in very poor condition. A house from 1MISSION would give Jose a safe and secure home where he could raise his children and care for his family. It would create a stability that would allow him to focus on building a secure future for them all.
